

Discover the vibrant taste of Agua de Jamaica, Mexico's beloved hibiscus infusion.

This ruby-red refresher traces its roots to West Africa—where the hibiscus flower first flourished—and arrived on Mexican shores during colonial times. Over centuries, it has become a staple agua fresca, celebrated for its bright tartness and subtle floral sweetness.

Whether sipped ice-cold at a street stand or served alongside your favorite meal, Agua de Jamaica offers a cool, invigorating escape—and a living testament to the rich cultural exchange that shapes Latin American cuisine.

“Experience the legacy. Embrace the refreshment. Salud!”
